*Trustee of the Year Nominations
Sought by Leadership Class and Fremont Rotary Club*

The Fremont Rotary Club and Leadership Sandusky County are seeking nominations for the 2011 Community Trustee of the Year Award.

Those eligible for the award are volunteer members of boards of trustees of non-profit organizations based in or directly serving Sandusky County. The award is presented annually by LSC and Fremont Rotary and includes a $250 grant from Rotary given to the winner's organization. The winner will be selected by the LSC Class of 2011 and a representative of Fremont Rotary and will be announced at the LSC graduation dinner in June.

We are sending you this information in case you are on a non-profit board and in a position to nominate such a person or know of someone who qualifies for this award. A member of the non-profit group on whose board the candidate serves must recommend the candidate for the award.

Please see the enclosed information and nomination form for the Community Trustee of the Year Award. Nominations must be submitted by Friday, April 1, 2011 to the Leadership Sandusky County office at 101 South Front Street, Fremont, 43420 or faxed to 419-332-8666.

We look forward to receiving your nomination for the Community Trustee of the Year Award. For more information or if you have any questions, please contact LSC at 419-332-1591 or at director@leadershipsanduskycounty.org.

Thank you for your help!

Community Trustee of the Year Award Nomination Form

The Fremont Rotary Club and the Board of Trustees of Leadership Sandusky County would like to recognize a member of a non-profit board (a "community trustee") for their outstanding leadership and service to their organization and Sandusky County during the past calendar year. The nominee must live or work in Sandusky County and the organization must serve Sandusky County.

Members of the current Leadership Sandusky County class will make the selection as part of their leadership and trusteeship training, assisted by a representative of Fremont Rotary. A grant of $250 will be made to the winner's organization and an award will be presented to the winner at the graduation dinner for the current Leadership Sandusky County class on Wednesday, June 15, 2011.

Please take this opportunity to nominate an outstanding member of your organization's board by completing this form and returning it to Leadership Sandusky County, 101 South Front Street, Fremont, 43420 by Friday, April 1, 2011. If you have any questions about this form or the award, call Candace Seaman, Leadership Sandusky County Director, at 419-332-1591.
